Imdad Sitara Khan Scholarship Policy

The Imdad Sitara Khan Scholarship Fund is a fully funded, 100% scholarship for meritorious students from financially disadvantaged backgrounds at Brac University. This is a full scholarship for incoming undergraduate students & midwifery diploma students. Students who meet specific criteria are eligible to apply for this scholarship.

Requirements:

- Monthly income of parents must not exceed Tk. 30,000/-.
- Applicants must pursue an undergraduate or midwifery diploma degree at Brac University.
- Applicants must complete their Higher Secondary Certificate or A-level education.
- Students who obtained a GPA of 4.5 without the 4th subject (GPA 4.0 for indigenous students) in SSC and HSC or equivalent are eligible.
- Students who obtained 4 “A”s in O Level/IGCSE (in two sittings) and 1 “A” and 2 “B”s in A Level or equivalent are eligible.
- Only one student from a family with siblings is eligible for this scholarship.

How to apply:

- Students who are eligible for Scholarship will have to apply for the first time through BracU prescribed form which is available at the Brac University website (https://www.bracu.ac.bd/admissions/scholarships-financial-aid) and submit it to the International & Scholarship Office, Brac University or email the scan copy to: scholarship@bracu.ac.bd Applicants must go through the standard admission process of Brac University and attend the admission test.

Terms and conditions:

- Recipients of the scholarship will be awarded a full tuition waiver that includes the residential semester fees and other fees. The most deserving applicants can apply for coverage of room and board if required.
- Recipients will receive support for a period of maximum 3 years for midwifery diploma programme & maximum 5 years for undergraduate programme.
- Recipients will not be subject to any credit load restrictions during their scholarship period.
- Recipients must maintain a minimum CGPA of 3.00 on a scale of 4.00 in their academic program.
- Recipients must self-pay for any courses that are retaken/repeated.
- Recipients must send a self-evaluation at the end of every year of scholarship to the donor.
- If a recipient drops a semester for a valid reason, that semester will not be counted as part of the the Scholarship. However, a proper justification must be submitted to the Chairperson of the scholarship committee with valid documents.
- In the event that a candidate fails to maintain the necessary CGPA (3.00 out of 4.00), they will be given two consecutive semesters to raise their CGPA to the required level. Their scholarship will remain intact during these two semesters. If they fail to raise their CGPA to the required level within this timeframe, their Imdad Sitara Khan Scholarship shall lapse.
- Brac University (BracU) will review candidates and select scholarship recipients. BracU will provide profiles of the selected students with the donor as well as ensure that updates and/or letters from the scholars are shared on an annual basis. The BracU Scholarship Committee will oversee and monitor the progress of the scholarship recipients throughout their academic journey until graduation.
- The Scholarship will be terminated upon the discovery of any false or misleading information with regard to admissions-related documentation. Students who violate Brac University's code of conduct may also have their scholarship revoked. In exceptional circumstances, the committee may recommend that the scholarship be retained. This decision must be approved by the scholarship committee.
- The scholarship policy and eligibility criteria may change from time to time based on the availability of funds. The Scholarship Committee will endeavor to give advance notice of changes.